GPS Hope will provide digital templates for promotional materials that can be printed out and distributed per signing of the contract and payment.

GPS Hope will provide blessing bags and items to go in the bags upon arrival (which includes a copy of Laura's book When Tragedy Strikes).

Provided by the host:

- Venue - one main meeting room (with a sound system, projector and screen) and a second smaller room for the men in a break-out session
- Lunch on sight of venue (This is a deeply emotional day. Sending the attendees out to get their own lunch can be very stressful and is not an option.)
- Helium tank(s) for balloon launch (typically $35-$55 per tank—one tank per 30 attendees)
  - It is the responsibility of the host to make sure there is no city ordinance against this
  - Note: please do not use balloons as decorations, since this is not a celebration type event
- Items for communion
- Tissue boxes around the meeting room
- A team to assemble the blessing bags upon our arrival and a small group of people to fill the balloons toward the end of the day at the conference

We will work closely with the host, which includes the detailed information on how the above items will be used and how to set things up. If you have the slightest question about if something would be appropriate or helpful, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Anything you can do to make this event special will be so greatly appreciated.

Please consider having some sort of donation program to cover the cost for those who cannot afford to attend.

We also highly recommend taking advantage of our being available in your area to offer one or both of the following as separate sessions, open to the community:
